WHEREAS, Lawrence Carlier left an indelible impression on the people whose lives he touched, and he will be remembered as a spirited man who contributed immeasurably to the world around him. A U.S. Navy veteran of the Korean War, he commenced his career in law as an attorney in private practice with Flach Douglas, and he was elected to the Ohio House of Representatives in 1964, where he served one term, before being named an assistant prosecuting attorney in 1968. He was elected a Clermont County Judge in 1970 of life in our society was clearly evident in his personal 17 his endeavors, he displayed exceptional concern and insight, and 20 his absence will be keenly felt; and 21 father to his five children, Suzy, Pete, Kelly, Jed, and Kate, and 23 a committed grandfather to his twelve grandchildren and two great- 24 benefit of others, and the laurels of his life stand as a tribute 26 not only to him but also to those he left behind. Although the 27 void his death has created can never be filled, the legacy of care 28 and commitment he established will surely live on. The world is a 29 richer place for his having been in it, and he will be sorely 30 missed; therefore be it 31

Representatives of the 132nd General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting 33
