An insurer that provides malpractice insurance for a health care provider for care provided in this state may not take any adverse action, including but not limited to sanctions, fines, penalties, rate increases or denial or revocation of coverage, against a health care provider authorized to provide care in this state if the adverse action is:

“(1) Based solely on the health care provider’s providing, authorizing, recommending, aiding, assisting, referring for or otherwise participating in a reproductive or gender-affirming health care service that is lawful in this state but unlawful in the jurisdiction in which the health care provider provided the service, so long as the service provided was performed in accordance with the standard of care applicable to the service; or

“(2) A result of an adverse action taken against the health care provider’s license issued by another state that resulted solely from the health care provider’s providing, authorizing, recommending, aiding, assisting, referring for or otherwise participating in a reproductive or gender-affirming health care service that is lawful in this state but provided to a resident of a jurisdiction in which the service is unlawful or is unlawful in the jurisdiction in which the health care provider provided the service, so long as the service provided was performed in accordance with the standard of care applicable to the service.

“SECTION 31a. ORS 675.070 is amended to read:

“675.070. (1) If any of the grounds enumerated in subsection (2) of this section exist, the Oregon Board of Psychology may impose any of the following sanctions:

“(a) Deny a license to an applicant;

“(b) Refuse to renew the license of a psychologist or psychologist associate;

“(c) Suspend the license of a psychologist or psychologist associate for a period of not less than one year;

“(d) Issue a letter of reprimand;

“(e) Impose probation with authority to restrict the scope of practice of a psychologist or psychologist associate or require practice under supervision;

“(f) Revoke the license of a psychologist or psychologist associate; or “(g) Impose a civil penalty as described in subsection (3) of this section.

“(2) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, the board may impose a sanction listed in subsection (1) of this section against a psychologist or psychologist associate or applicant, or, if applicable, an unlicensed person found in violation of ORS 675.010 to 675.150, when, in the judgment of the board, the person:

“(a) Has an impairment as defined in ORS 676.303;

“(b) Has been convicted of violation of a law relating to controlled substances;

“(c) Has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;

“(d) Is guilty of immoral or unprofessional conduct or of gross negligence in the practice of psychology, including but not limited to:

“(A) Conduct or practice contrary to recognized standard of ethics of the psychological profes-

1 sion or conduct or practice that constitutes a danger to the health or safety of a patient or the
2 public, or conduct, practice or a condition that adversely affects a psychologist or psychologist
3 associate's ability to practice psychology safely and skillfully.

4 “(B) Willful ordering or performing of unnecessary tests or studies, administration of unneces-
5 sary treatment, failure to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is not
6 consistent with the standard of care, or otherwise ordering or performing a psychological service
7 or treatment that is contrary to recognized standards of practice of the psychological profession;

8 “(e) Has practiced or attempted to practice medicine without being licensed to do so;

9 “(f) Has obtained or attempted to obtain a license under ORS 675.010 to 675.150 by fraud or 10 material misrepresentation;

11 “(g) Has impersonated a licensed psychologist or psychologist associate or has allowed another
12 person to use the license of the psychologist;

13 “(h) Has violated a provision of ORS 675.010 to 675.150 or 675.850 or a provision of the code of 14 professional conduct formulated under ORS 675.110 (13);

15 “(i) Has obtained a fee or payment from a patient or third party payer through fraud or inten-
16 tional misrepresentation; or

17 “(j) Notwithstanding ORS 670.280, has been convicted of a sex crime as defined in ORS 163A.005
18 or has been convicted in another state or jurisdiction of a crime that is substantially equivalent to
19 a sex crime as defined in ORS 163A.005.

20 “(3) The board may impose a civil penalty under subsection (1) of this section:

21 “(a) In an amount not to exceed $5,000; or

22 “(b) In an amount not to exceed $10,000, if any of the following conditions exist:

23 “(A) The conduct giving rise to the penalty had a serious detrimental effect on the health or 24 safety of another person;

25 “(B) The person subject to the penalty has a history of discipline for the same or similar con-
26 duct;

27 “(C) The conduct giving rise to the penalty involves a willful or reckless disregard of the law;

28 “(D) The conduct giving rise to the penalty was perpetrated against a minor, an elderly person
29 or a person with a disability; or

30 “(E) The person subject to the penalty violated ORS 675.020 by practicing psychology or repre-
31 senting that the person is a psychologist without having a license.

32 “(4) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, if a conviction described in sub-
33 section (2) of this section is used as grounds for denial, refusal, suspension, revocation, reprimand,
34 probation or imposition of a civil penalty, a certified copy of the record of the conviction shall be 35 conclusive evidence.

36 “(5) The board may license an applicant or renew or restore a license suspended or revoked
37 under subsection (2)(a) of this section due to a mental health condition if the board determines that 38 the applicant or former licensed psychologist or former psychologist associate no longer has an 39 impairment due to a mental health condition.

40 “(6) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, license suspension or revocation in 41 another state is grounds for license denial or disciplinary action by the board.

42 “(7) The board may not suspend or revoke a person's license to practice psychology, or 43 refuse to grant a license to practice psychology to a person, because of a conviction or li-
44 cence suspension or revocation resulting solely from the person's provision of psychological 45 services relating to reproductive or gender-affirming health care that are otherwise lawful

1 in this state but unlawful in the jurisdiction in which the person provided the services, so
2 long as the services provided were performed in accordance with the standard of care appli-
3 cable to the services.

4 “SECTION 31b. ORS 675.540 is amended to read:

5 “675.540. (1) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, the State Board of Licensed Social
6 Workers may impose any or all of the sanctions specified in subsection (2) of this section, upon
7 proof, after a hearing pursuant to the provisions of ORS chapter 183 relating to a contested case,
8 that a regulated social worker:

9 “(a) Has been convicted in this or any other state of a crime that is a felony in this state;

10 “(b) Has been convicted of a felony in a federal court;

11 “(c) Is unable to perform the practice of social work by reason of physical illness;

12 “(d) Has an impairment as defined in ORS 676.303;

13 “(e) Has been grossly negligent or has engaged in unprofessional conduct in the practice of so-
14 cial work;

15 “(f) Has violated any provision of ORS 675.510 to 675.600 or 675.850 or any rule adopted under 16 ORS 675.600; or

17 “(g) Notwithstanding ORS 670.280, has been convicted of a sex crime as defined in ORS 163A.005
18 or has been convicted in another state or jurisdiction of a crime that is substantially equivalent to
19 a sex crime as defined in ORS 163A.005.

20 “(2) Pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the board may:

21 “(a) Deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew any authorization to practice regulated social 22 work issued under ORS 675.510 to 675.600.

23 “(b) Place a regulated social worker on probation and impose conditions or limits on the scope
24 of practice of a regulated social worker.

25 “(c) Impose a civil penalty not to exceed $3,000 for each violation.

26 “(3) The expiration, or voluntary surrender by a regulated social worker, of an authorization to 27 practice regulated social work does not deprive the board of jurisdiction to proceed with any in-
28 vestigation of, or any action or disciplinary proceedings against, the regulated social worker.

29 “(4) Information that the board obtains as part of an investigation into the conduct of a regu-
30 lated social worker or an applicant for an authorization to practice regulated social work or as part
31 of a contested case proceeding, consent order or stipulated agreement involving the conduct of a
32 regulated social worker or applicant, is confidential as provided under ORS 676.175.

33 “(5) Subject to the provisions of ORS chapter 183 relating to a contested case, the board may 34 impose a civil penalty in an amount up to $5,000 upon proof that, after a person’s authorization to 35 practice regulated social work has been revoked by the board, the person has:

36 “(a) Engaged in the practice of clinical social work; or 37 “(b) Represented that the person is a regulated social worker.

38 “(6) Subject to the provisions of ORS chapter 183 relating to a contested case, the board may
39 impose a civil penalty of up to $3,000 upon proof that a person who is not a regulated social worker 40 has:

41 “(a) Represented that the person is a regulated social worker; or

42 “(b) Used the title ‘social worker’ or any title, words or abbreviations that indicate that the 43 person has an authorization to practice regulated social work in violation of ORS 675.520.

44 “(7) Subject to the provisions of ORS chapter 183 relating to a contested case, the board may
45 impose a civil penalty of up to $5,000 upon proof that a person who is not a clinical social worker

1 licensed under ORS 675.530 or a clinical social work associate certified under ORS 675.537 has:

2 “(a) Engaged in the practice of clinical social work, unless the person is permitted to practice
3 clinical social work under ORS 675.523; or

4 “(b) Represented that the person is a clinical social worker or clinical social work associate.

5 “(8)(a) As used in this section, ‘social work services’ means clinical social work, the 6 practice of baccalaureate social work, the practice of master’s social work or the practice
7 of social work.

8 “(b) The board may not suspend or revoke a person’s authorization to practice regulated
9 social work, or refuse to grant a person an authorization to practice regulated social work,
10 because of a conviction or license suspension or revocation resulting solely from the person’s
11 provision of social work services relating to reproductive or gender-affirming health care
12 that are otherwise lawful in this state but unlawful in the jurisdiction in which the person
13 provided the services, so long as the services provided were performed in accordance with 14 the standard of care applicable to the services.

15 “SECTION 31c. ORS 675.745 is amended to read:

16 “675.745. (1) The Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists may deny,
17 suspend, revoke or refuse to issue or to renew any license issued under ORS 675.715 to 675.835 upon
18 proof that the applicant for licensure or the licensee:

19 “(a) Except as provided in subsection (8) of this section, has been convicted of violating ORS
20 675.825 or of a crime in this or any other state or territory or against the federal government that 21 brings into question the competence of the licensee in the role of a counselor or a therapist;

22 “(b) Is unable to perform the practice of professional counseling or marriage and family therapy
23 by reason of physical illness;

24 “(c) Has an impairment as defined in ORS 676.303;

25 “(d) Has been grossly negligent in the practice of professional counseling or marriage and family
26 therapy;

27 “(e) Has violated any provision of ORS 675.715 to 675.835 or 675.850;

28 “(f) Has violated any rule of the board pertaining to the licensure of professional counselors or 29 licensed marriage and family therapists;

30 “(g) Has failed to file a professional disclosure statement or has filed a false, incomplete or 31 misleading professional disclosure statement;

32 “(h) Has practiced outside the scope of activities, including administering, constructing or in-
33 terpreting tests or diagnosing or treating mental disorders, for which the licensee has individual
34 training and qualification;

35 “(i) Except as provided in subsection (8) of this section, has been disciplined by a state
36 mental health licensing board or program in this or any other state for violation of competency or 37 conduct standards; or

38 “(j) Notwithstanding ORS 670.280, has been convicted of a sex crime as defined in ORS 163A.005
39 or has been convicted in another state or jurisdiction of a crime that is substantially equivalent to
40 a sex crime as defined in ORS 163A.005.

41 “(2)(a) The board may reprimand or impose probation on a licensee or a registered associate 42 upon proof of any of the grounds for discipline provided in subsection (1) of this section.

43 “(b) If the board elects to place a licensee or a registered associate on probation, the board may 44 impose:

45 “(A) Restrictions on the scope of practice of the licensee or associate;

1 “(B) Requirements for specific training;

2 “(C) Supervision of the practice of the licensee or associate; or

3 “(D) Other conditions the board finds necessary for the protection of the public.

4 “(3) The board may initiate injunctive proceedings in any circuit court against persons violating
5 any provision of ORS 675.715 to 675.835 or any rules adopted by the board.

6 “(4) Pursuant to ORS 183.745, the board may impose a civil penalty of not more than $2,500 for 7 each ground for discipline listed in subsection (1) of this section found by the board.

8 “(5) Pursuant to ORS 183.745, the board may impose a civil penalty of not more than $2,500 for 9 each violation of or failure to observe any limitation or condition imposed by the board on the 10 licensee’s or registered associate’s practice under subsection (2) of this section.

11 “(6) Information that the board obtains as part of an investigation into licensee or applicant 12 conduct or as part of a contested case proceeding, consent order or stipulated agreement involving 13 licensee or applicant conduct is confidential as provided under ORS 676.175.

14 “(7) In addition to the actions authorized by subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the board
15 may take such disciplinary action as the board in its discretion finds proper, including but not lim-
16 ited to the assessment of the costs of the disciplinary process.

17 “(8) The board may not suspend or revoke a person’s license or registration to practice
18 professional counseling or marriage and family therapy, or refuse to grant a license or reg-
19 istration to practice professional counseling or marriage and family therapy to a person, 20 because of a conviction or disciplinary action resulting solely from the person’s provision of 21 professional counseling services or marriage and family therapy services relating to repro-
22 ductive or gender-affirming health care that are otherwise lawful in this state but unlawful 23 in the jurisdiction in which the person provided the services, so long as the services provided

35 “SECTION 48. (1) As used in this section:

36 “(a) ‘Gender-affirming treatment’ means a procedure, service, drug, device or product 37 that a physical or behavioral health care provider prescribes to treat an individual for 38 incongruence between the individual’s gender identity and the individual’s sex assignment 39 at birth.

40 “(b) ‘Reproductive health’ means reproductive processes, functions and systems at all
41 stages of life.

42 “(c) ‘Reproductive health care’ includes family planning and contraception, pregnancy
43 termination services, prenatal, postnatal and delivery care, miscarriage management,
44 fertility care, sterilization services, treatments for sexually transmitted infections and re-
45 productive cancers and any other health care and medical services related to reproductive

1 health.

2 “(2) A law of another state that authorizes a person to bring a civil or criminal action
3 against a person that does any of the following is contrary to the public policy of this state:

4 “(a) Receive reproductive health care or gender-affirming treatment;

5 “(b) Provide or attempt to provide reproductive health care or gender-affirming treat-
6 ment; or

7 “(c) Knowingly engage in conduct that aids or abets the provision of reproductive health
8 care or gender-affirming treatment.

9 “(3) Notwithstanding ORCP 38 C, a person may not request that a clerk of court issue a 10 subpoena for service upon a person to whom a foreign subpoena is directed if the foreign 11 subpoena relates to gender-affirming treatment or reproductive health care services that are 12 permitted under the laws of this state, unless the person requesting the subpoena provides 13 a written declaration that the foreign subpoena relates to:

14 “(a) An out-of-state action founded in tort, contract or statute, for which a similar claim
15 would exist under the laws of this state, brought by a patient or the patient’s authorized 16 legal representative, for damages suffered by the patient; or

17 “(b) An out-of-state action founded in contract, and for which a similar claim would exist
18 under the laws of this state, brought or sought to be enforced by a party with a contractual 19 relationship with the person that is the subject of the subpoena.

20 “SECTION 49. ORS 15.430 is amended to read:

21 “15.430. Notwithstanding ORS 15.440, 15.445 and 15.455, Oregon law governs noncontractual
22 claims in the following actions:

23 “(1) Actions in which, after the events giving rise to the dispute, the parties agree to the ap-
24 plication of Oregon law.
